CD-ROMs

1. National Geographic: Maps : Complete Collection. 9 CDs. Installed on left scanning station in VRC. Contains nice scans of all of the big foldout maps from NG from 2000 and earlier, but you have to use their annoying propriety program. No export feature, and (as of 7-08) no way to get around it.
2. Anderson Graphic Arts Collection. Multimedia Kiosk by Without Walls. 2 CD's. Two discs with ~6 mid-20th-century artists, focusing on a particular work of theirs. Movies about these works, might be alright but you have to load both discs onto your computer or else files are missing.
3. James Tissot: La Demoiselle du Magasin. Anderson Graphic Arts Collection. Multimedia Kiosk by Without Walls. 1 disc. See above, but with some Impressionism.
4. An American Focus. Anderson Graphic Arts Collection. Multimedia Kiosk by Without Walls. 1 CD. See above.
5. Ancient Greek Art: Architecture. Saskia. Has full-resolution, smaller, and thumbnails of some nice photographs. 1995. 1 disc, 2 copies.
6. Botega a Roma: Tom Dehill at the American Academy. eBook. Comes with nice color images of Tom Dehill's work. 1 disc.
7. Perseus 1.0. Collection of Ancient Greek Images. 1 disc.
 - A. Also look for Introductory VHS. (But pretty dull.)

8. Perseus 2.0. With Supplemental Discs for Comprehensive Edition. 4 discs.
9. Power Mac G3 Startup Disc. 1 disc.
